Criticism on Indian Act 1935.

- ↳ Act failed to provide a proper federal structure. → most powers given to the Governors.
- ↳ Act failed to provide individuals with constitutional flexibility.
- ↳ Both the Muslim League & Congress expressed dissatisfaction → League condemned the Act for being detrimental both to British India & Indian States
- ↳ The Quaid-e-Azam remarked that it was "thoroughly rotten, fundamentally bad & totally unacceptable" @CSSPMS360
In the League's opinion it, its aim was to create hindrance in way of giving completely, autonomous & responsible govt to the Indians.
- ↳ Acc. to Moulvi A.K Fazlul Haq, the act ensured neither the Muslim Raj nor the Hindu Raj but the British Raj.
